

RESOLVE VIOLATIONS WITHOUT A COURT HEARING

Starting September 22, 2010, respondents who receive a Department of Buildings violation, and wish to admit the charge, will not have to attend a hearing at the Environmental Control Board (ECB).

Respondents who choose to plead guilty can pay the minimum penalty by mail anytime before – or on the day of – the scheduled hearing at ECB.

To present a defense in response to the violation, attend the hearing at ECB on the date provided.

Please note: After you admit to the violation and pay the penalty, you will still need to correct the violating conditions and submit a certificate of correction to the Department of Buildings. Uncorrected violations are subject to re-inspection, additional violations and fines.*
